From the editor

As we wind down the year and reflect on 2019, we've accomplished a lot as a group. In this newsletter we look at a few folks who helped us get to where we are. In fact, you'll find one unique employee who has something much different to offer.

In addition, with the upcoming holiday, please take time to enjoy with your loved ones, relax, and refresh from a big year. 2020 Is going to be even bigger!

INTEL ADMIN EXCELLENCE AWARD

ARTICLE

Marta Garska wins Intel Admin Excellence Award

Congratulations to Marta Garska for winning the Intel Admin Excellence Award.

Read more here »

NTT, INTEL, & Sony Establish Global Forum

Growing awareness and influence for our product portfolio is critical. Learn more about how we tell the Move Faster portion of the Move, Store, Process story externally at events.

Read more on this and other events here »

Meet Frankie, Intel's Unique "Employee"

Our newest "employee" came into the Intel fold with our acquisition of Barefoot Networks. He's not your everyday type employee.

Learn more about Frankie »

Who's your superhero? This is ours!

You didn't know we had super heroes in CG. We do, and this newsletter we explore one of our own who was recognized by Lisa Spelman's Marketing team.

Read More »

ARTICLE

Did you miss the Q4 QGS?

The Connectivity Group Q4 Group Sync webcast replay is now available. Craig shared details on CG Q4 performance, provided a competitive landscape update, recognized your amazing work, and took questions from the audience.

Watch the Replay »

Follow us on the CG Hub

Get the latest news from around the Connectivity Group at the CG Employee Hub. Click the follow option to receive updates. Let us know your feedback and story ideas for the CG Connection.